

I do not feel the FCC should implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has improved my life style as I had received up to 15 calls a week, most of them had no one on the line as they were using computer calling devices. Thankyou for your attention to this message.